

District Accountant, Villahermosa, Mexico

ITS Mexico is seeking a District Accountant. The ideal candidate must be detail-oriented, with strong problem solving abilities, analytical skills, deliver output on time and accurately and work well under pressure. The ability to speak, read and write English to be able to liaise with colleagues in USA and UK is paramount. The candidate will have financial reporting experience as well as the necessary personal attributes and solid communication abilities detailed above. The position will report to the Country Controller, but will work alongside the General Manager